

Christmas

Read the text

The 25th of December is Christmas Day. In the UK, families often celebrate Christmas together, so they can watch each other open their presents!

Most families have a Christmas Tree (or maybe even two!) in their house for Christmas. The decorating of the tree is usually a family occasion, everyone helps. Holly, Ivy and Mistletoe are also sometimes used to decorate homes.

Most villages, towns and cities are decorated with Christmas lights over Christmas. The most famous Christmas lights in the UK are in Oxford Street in London. Every year they get bigger and better.

Children believe that Santa Claus leaves presents in stockings or pillowcases. Children write letters to Santa listing their requests, but sometimes instead of putting them in the post, the letters are tossed into the fireplace.

In the UK, people usually eat the main Christmas Meal at lunchtime on Christmas Day. It's normally turkey and vegetables sometimes bacon and sausages. Dessert is often Christmas Pudding. Trifle is also a popular dessert at Christmas.

The UK is also famous for Christmas Cake - some people love it and some people really don't like it

At 3.00pm on Christmas Day, the Royal Christmas Message is broadcast on TV, radio and online in the UK. The tradition of a Royal Christmas Message started in 1932 by King George V.

In the UK, it doesn't snow very often, but people always want to know if it will be a 'White Christmas'. Statistics show that in the UK, they get an official White Christmas about every 4 or 5 years and have real snow at Christmas about 1 in 10

One sure way of getting some snow into Christmas in the UK is by watching the popular cartoon 'The Snowman' which is about a boy's adventure when his snowman comes to life. The animation was first shown on UK TV on Boxing Day in 1982. The Snowman also sings the song "Walking in the Air"
